

THE INSTITUTE OF WORLD POLITICS

Tuition

Semester	Per four-credit course	Per two-credit course
Spring 2008-Fall 2008	$3,900.00	$1,950.00

Tuition is due in full at the start of the semester. All students enrolling in a course must send a non-refundable deposit of $300 per course upon receipt of notification of acceptance to guarantee a place in class. This deposit will be applied toward the tuition balance. Students registering after the registration deadline will be charged at late fee of $75.

Student Services Fees

Semester	Per student (all programs)
Spring 2008	$115.00
Summer 2008	$50.00
Fall 2008	$115.00
Graduation fee (June 2008)	$150.00

Financial Aid

Please note the following: (1) The Application for Financial Aid is on the following page. Please follow the directions carefully; (2) Only M.A. and certificate students are eligible for financial aid; (3) Financial aid is granted for the fall, spring and summer semesters; (4) Financial aid will cover the full academic year (fall/spring) when the student registers for the fall semester and continues in the spring semester. Re-application is not needed for the spring semester. Students who have registered for the spring semester, and not for the previous fall semester, will be considered for aid only for the spring semester; (5) Financial aid is not available to auditors; (6) Financial aid may be applied toward tuition only. It does not cover the application or student services fees, books, transportation, fines or other course materials or fees; and (7) Students may apply for only one category of scholarship or financial aid.

TUITION GRANT

Up to $1,000 off tuition per semester is available for both first-time and returning applicants who otherwise could not afford to attend our program. In addition to demonstrating financial need, returning students must have received at least a 3.33 GPA during the previous academic year in order to qualify. Students receiving the tuition grant for both the fall and spring semesters must receive at least a 3.33 GPA in the fall semester in order to maintain financial aid in the spring.

STATESMAN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Institute awards to qualified U.S. citizens and U.S. permanent residents a limited number of competitive scholarships that cover up to $5,000 off tuition per semester.

Recipients of this scholarship must be enrolled in at least eight credit hours per semester. These scholarships are awarded according to the following criteria: financial need; academic qualifications; a character recommendation; and an essay. The character recommendation form is located in this application packet. Returning students must have received at least a 3.67 GPA during the previous academic year in order to qualify. Students receiving the scholarship for both the fall and spring semesters must receive at least a 3.67 GPA in the fall semester in order to maintain financial aid for the spring semester.

Preference for these scholarships is given to M.A. candidates, though certificate students may also be considered depending on availability of scholarship funds.

U.S. PUBLIC SERVICE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Institute offers U.S. government personnel in the military, diplomatic, and intelligence fields up to $2,500 off tuition per semester. Those eligible for this scholarship include all active, reserve, and retired U.S. military personnel, U.S. diplomatic personnel, and U.S. intelligence community personnel. Students receiving this scholarship must be enrolled in at least eight credit hours per semester. Students must demonstrate that they do not receive tuition reimbursement from their employer.

To qualify, you must demonstrate financial need and submit documentation verifying (1) your current status in the armed forces, diplomatic or intelligence communities and (2) that your service or agency cannot reimburse you for the full cost of tuition. Returning students must have received at least a 3.33 GPA during the previous academic year in order to qualify. Students receiving the scholarship for both the fall and spring semesters must receive at least a 3.33 GPA in the fall semester in order to maintain financial aid for the spring semester.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

These competitive scholarships provide up to $4,000 per semester and are awarded based on the following criteria: financial need; academic qualifications; a character recommendation; and an essay. The character recommendation form is located in the application packet. Returning students must have received at least a 3.33 GPA during the previous academic year in order to qualify. Students receiving the scholarship for the fall and spring semesters must receive at least a 3.33 GPA average in the fall semester in order to maintain financial aid for the spring.

Students eligible for this scholarship must be in possession of, or intend to apply for, a visa issued by the U.S. Department of State. Permanent residents of the U.S. are not eligible for this scholarship. Students must also be enrolled full-time (at least nine credit hours per semester), in accordance with their visa requirements.

Financial Aid Application Deadlines

Spring 2008	December 7, 2007
Summer 2008	May 2, 2008
Fall 2008	August 1, 2008
Spring 2009	December 5, 2008

THE INSTITUTE OF WORLD POLITICS

Application for Financial Aid

Please print legibly. Submit this form with all required materials on or before the required financial aid application deadline. Incomplete applications will not be processed. All information will be kept confidential.

Personal Information

Name _____
Last First MI
SSN _____
Phone Day: _____ Evening: _____
E-mail _____

Semester:
(Check all that apply)

- Spring 2008
 Summer 2008
 Fall 2008
 Spring 2009

 First-time applicant
 Repeat applicant

All financial aid applicants must complete and include the following:

Part I. Type of Aid Requested (Please check only one AFTER carefully reading requirements and descriptions on reverse page.)

- Tuition Grant (must also submit Part II) U.S. Public Service Scholarship (must also submit Part II)
 Statesman Scholarship (must also submit Parts II, III, IV) International Student Scholarship (must also submit Parts II, III, IV)

Part II. Declaration of Need

Please submit the following information:

1. A brief review of your financial condition, including any particular circumstances (such as indebtedness) that would make it very difficult or impossible for you to afford to attend the Institute without financial aid.
2. Evidence of your annual income, such as a recent salary statement or IRS Form 1040.
3. An official declaration verifying the amount of tuition your employer will reimburse (if applicable).
4. Proof of employment status (for U.S. Public Service Scholarship only).
5. A signed statement, certifying on your honor that all the supplied information is true and accurate.

Part III. Character Recommendation (For first-time and non-MA applicants only)

Part IV. Essay Questions

First-time applicants: On a separate page, please answer the following question (typewritten, 500-750 words):

For Statesman Scholarship: What principles, ideals and obligations should guide the formulation of U.S. foreign and national security policies, and why?

For International Student Scholarship: What constitutes peace among nations, what are the best ways to achieve effective, lasting, and just peace, and why?

Returning applicants: On a separate page, please answer each of the following:

- 1) Have you received this scholarship from IWP in the past? Please list other types of assistance you have received from IWP.
- 2) Please list the titles of the courses and the names of your professors from your most recent semester at IWP.
- 3) Answer each of the following in 250 words:
 - A. What were the major themes of your most recent course, and how has the course enabled you to meet your educational goals and/or enhance your career development?*
 - B. How has the course furthered your understanding of statecraft?*

*If you were enrolled in more than one course during your most recent semester, please choose only one course as the basis for your response.